Vienna, May 9. N. S. On Wednesday Night 11. Major-General Graven arriv'd here with the agreeable News, that Cassovia had surrendered to the Germans on the 26th past; the Garrison, consisting of three thousand Men and upwards, accepting the Pardon that had been offer'd to 'em, and taking the Oaths of Fidelity and Allegiance to his Catholick Majesty. On the 29th Count Caroli brought to Marshal Palfi the Articles of Accommodation sign'd by the Principal of the Malecontents, who march'd their Men into the Plains of Mutin, where near eleven thousand of them threw down their Arms, and surrendered their Standards and Colours to General Palfi, in the Presence of Monsieur Locher. When this was done, the General acquainted them with the Death of his Imperial Majesty, at which they seem'd much astonish'd, but took the Oaths requir'd of them in a very submissive, but chearful Manner. There are now only three Places of Defence that have not made their Submission, of which Montgatz is the Chief; and forasmuch as Count Caroli's Lady is in that Town, the Governor of which is his near Relation, and much devoted to his Interest, and his own Regiment is in Garrison there, it is expected that neither that nor the other two Places will make any Opposition, especially since they are out of all possibility of Relief from their Army; so that it is not to be doubted but a General Peace will be establish'd in a few Days, and the Kingdom of Hungary restor'd to its former Tranquility; for the forwarding and perfecting of which, Orders are sent to General Palfi to continue in that Country. The King of Prussia has sent a very obliging Letter to the Empress Regent, in which he assures her Majesty of his Vote in favour of the King of Spain at the ensuing Election, and has order'd Monsieur Bartholdi, his Resident here, to go forthwith on the same Errand to his Catholick Majesty, and accordingly that Minister set out from hence yesterday for Barcelona. The Empress has likewise receiv'd Letters to the same purpose from the King of Poland.

From the Camp at Warde, May 21. N. S. The Boats laden with Ammunition and Stores being safely arrived at Bethune, St. Venant and Aire, according to their Distribution, the four thousand Palatines, which made part of their Convoy, are coming forward to join the Army, and the other Troops employ'd in that Service are return'd to the respective Garrisons from whence they were drawn on this Occasion. Thirty two Boats laden with Forage, and other Provisions for the Army, are likewise safely arriv'd near Douay up the Scarpe; but as we still expect another Convoy the same way, the Troops continue encamp'd between St. Amand and Mortagne 'till the whole is past by in Security. The Prince of Savoy's Equipage being arriv'd at the Abby of Anchin, which is appointed for his Quarters, his Highness is expected at the Army to Morrow. The Armies on both sides continue in their former Camps. The Enemy have not made any Detachment from their Army, as it was given out they intended to do upon the Death of the Emperor.

Hague, May 22. N. S. We have with extream Satisfaction received a Confirmation of the Agreement with the Malecontents in Hungary. It is said, that their Army, consisting of about twelve thousand Men, took the Oath of Fidelity to the King of Spain on the 29th of April, which Oath
